Architectural drawings of the proposed girls' hostel building, including a ground floor plan, a front elevation, and a section view. The ground floor plan shows a large rectangular building with multiple rooms, a central corridor, and a staircase. The front elevation shows a long, multi-story building with a series of windows and a central entrance. The section view shows a cross-section of the building, illustrating the internal structure and the placement of the staircase. The drawings are labeled with dimensions and room names. A north arrow is present in the bottom right corner of the ground floor plan.
